THE WORK CONSISTS OF SETS OF

Ornamental Capitals, Business Capitals, Card Writing, Body Writing, Poetry, and Flourishing—all written in a style that has never been excelled.

It is long and time is fleeting
And our hearts, though light and brave, Still like muffled drums are beating Funeral marches to the grave

Sounds which address the ear are lost and die
in one short hour, but that which strikes the eye lives long upon the mind of the faithful sight engraves the knowledge with a beam of light

Silence may be golden, but money often talks in silvery tones.

In the matter of achieving success, consistency is a paste jewel compared to persistence.

Little deeds of kindness
done in a quiet way, Reach both wide and deep and always bring their pay.

A self-made man botches the job when he thinks that he has finished the work.

Alas! the joys that fortune brings Are trifling and decay;
And those that prize the paltry things More trifling still than they.

Lincoln measured by dollars and cents was a failure; measured by character, a world's standard.

The pen, the pen, the brave old pen,
Which stamped our thoughts of you,
Through its bold tracings oft again
Our thoughts still freshly pour
