The Thoroughbred Stallion,

Young Priam

(By the Celebrated Priam, dam Elsie May.)

YOUNG PRIAM'S breeding cannot be surpassed. He is a bright bay with black points, standing 16 hands 3 inches on a set of perfect legs with plenty of bone and substance, and being one of the right sort can withstand the closest scrutiny. He is a good server and as good a runner as any of his class, and will suit any class of mare.

Admiral, Fleet Admiral, Footprint, &c., and half-brother to Footprint and Step Out. By Richmond from Footprint, sister to Lord Wilton, and half-sister to Aurig, dam of Aurum, Aurora, and Auraria, by Countryman (imp.), from Instep (imp.), dam of Sanfon, Sandal, etc., by Lord Clifton from Sandal, granddam of the English Derby winner, Sandifon, and sire of Rock Sand, by Stockwell.

With few opportunities, Priam is the sire of Mairp, Cardinal, Primate, Youth, Best Man, Industry, Etebus, Darook, and many other winners.

He took first prize at Tabara Show and first at Murchison in 1905, and first and Champion at Shepparton in 1903.

Port Admiral is a full brother to the Admiral, who is second on the list of winning stallions, Rock Sand, winner of the English Derby, and his sire Sanfon, also winner of the same race, are both descendants of Sandal. Stockwell, from Juliet 3 d of Goldebroogh, Robin Hood and Martin's Heart.

Elsie May, by Vanguard, dam Prairie Flower, by Merman; Vanguard, by Pro-Martyr (imp.), by St. Albans (son of Stockwell) from Laura (dam of Petarch, sire of Baybody) by Orlando (son of Touchstone) from Torment by Marm. Vanguard is the winner of Kisternwick Park Hurdle Race, and also two hurdle races at Caulfield.

Young Priam's dam, Elsie May, is winner of a great number of races, and also the winner of a number of prizes in the show ring, and she is well known in the Goulburn Valley. She gained first prize at Murchison and Shepparton. THE MS. 43, payable 1/6 Dec ember, 1910. Good grass paddocks provided at 2s per week. Every care taken, but no responsibility.

Further particulars and information may be obtained from the groom in charge. ALEXANDER MOORE, Owner. At same place, draught stallion, Prince Herod. Further particulars on application.
